Aid for Cities Is Proposed in New Constitution

In a day when Arkansas' population is still moving out of rural areas toward the cities and their suburbs the people who are trying to come up with the framework of a new state constitution heard some common-sense proposals Monday.

Heretofore city governments have been restricted in their taxing powers by what the state legislature would permit, which hasn't been much. But Monday's proposals would enlarge municipal taxing power on the will of city voters, subject only to specific prohibitions by the legislature.

The foregoing proposal was recommended to the constitutional convention by its Municipal Government Committee and approved by the Finance and Taxation Committee. The committees also offered two additional changes which are significant:

1. That the 5-mill tax ceiling for cities be retained in the new constitution, but with the provision that it could be raised if city voters so choose.

2. Under the present constitution bonded indebtedness is regulated by a ceiling on millage — but the committees recommended that the ceiling be switched from millage to a percentage of the assessed valuation: 20 per cent of assessment.

This is a fair and progressive step. The previous emphasis on millage has tended to depress property assessments, leveling off or even reducing the total tax take from property and forcing a constantly increasing dependence upon sales and other special taxes which fall hardest upon the lowest-paid people.

But if a bond issue is really needed, and the people are convinced of it, then there will be a greater effort than in the past to put property on the books at something closer to its fair market value.

I do think, however, in justice to property owners, that when you are taxing them to support a bond issue you should require the bond issue question to obtain a majority of the entire electorate — not merely a majority of those voting. I look for further debate on this point in the constitutional convention.

Group Fights Increase in Bus Fare

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A group of residents planned today to seek to enjoin the Twin City Transit Co. from collecting a five-cent increase in the bus fare in North Little Rock.

Sidney L. Moore Jr. of the Legal Aid Bureau said Monday he had been retained by a low-income group in North Little Rock to protest the increase.

Moore said the increase, raising to 30 cents the fare for adults, "affects low-income people, who are the most frequent bus users."

The North Little Rock City Council and the Little Rock City Manager Board recently approved Twin City's request for the fare increase.

White House Announces Meeting Dates

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House has announced dates for President Nixon's meetings with South Korean President Park Chung Hee and West German Chancellor Kurt Kiesinger.

Kiesinger will visit the United States Aug. 7-8. He was scheduled for July 22-23, but this was postponed because of Nixon's trip to Asian countries and Panama.

Nixon will meet with Park, aides said, at the new summer White House at San Clemente, Calif., Aug. 21-22.

Arkansans With Majority

WASHINGTON (AP) — Arkansans' representatives voted with the majority Monday on the bill to extend the 10 per cent income surtax.

Declares ABM Funds Spent Illegally

By JACK BELL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration was accused today of illegally spending $400 million from funds appropriated for the discredited Sentinel missile defense system on the revamped Safeguard program.

Sen. Gaylord Nelson, D-Wis., in a prepared statement, said the Pentagon spent the money on Safeguard missiles and radar equipment although Congress has not approved the project and in spite of a Defense Department promise not to use the Sentinel funds.

"The fact is," Nelson said, "Congress has not authorized or appropriated one from the new Safeguard system. The administration's decision to spend Sentinel monies on the Safeguard system is a clear violation of the Congress' law-making authority."

Nixon junked the "thin" Sentinel system, which was designed to protect the nation's major cities, last March and asked Congress to approve the Safeguard system, armed at defending U.S. land-based offensive missiles.

Nelson's blast came after the President had put on his softest velvet glove in an attempt to break the apparent near deadlock in the Senate over Safeguard.

He met for an hour-and-a-half at the White House with five Republican Senate critics of the missile defense system — Sens. Charles Percy of Illinois, Charles McC. Mathias Jr. of Maryland, Marlow W. Cook of Kentucky, James B. Pearson of Kansas and Richard S. Schweiker of Pennsylvania.

Nixon's approach was of the softest soft-sell.

"The President emphasized that each member of Congress would have to exercise his own conscience. I had no feeling of being persuaded," Sen. Mathias said after the session.

Percy called the meeting, which had been scheduled for only 45 minutes, very friendly and said the President didn't even discuss Safeguard until he brought it up.

None of the five indicated any change of mind after the meeting.

With the vote expected to be very close, Nixon needs all the GOP support he can get, but he apparently intends to stay away from blatant partisan pressure rather than chance alienating other senators.

Legislative Meet Each Year Adopted

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Constitutional Convention today approved 62-27 a proposal making all meetings of the General Assembly and its committees open to the public.

The measure would make unconstitutional the practice of the Arkansas Senate in going into executive session to consider gubernatorial appointments.

Generally, such sessions are the only secret meetings held by the legislature.

The proposal was submitted by the Legislative Branch Committee primarily through the efforts of delegate Charles R. Garner of Fort Smith, who waged an intensive fight in committee to get approval of the proposal.

The vote on the main issue came after defeat of a proposed amendment by Dan McCraw of Hot Springs that would have allowed secret meetings in dealing with personnel matters. However, the McCraw amendment would have required that a vote on each question be made public. This provision also is contained in the proposal which was approved.

The vote on the McCraw amendment was 38-49.

The convention killed a proposed amendment by Ray Thornton of Sheridan that would have embodied the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution into the proposal, killing

Lending Truth Won't Make Credit Cheaper

WASHINGTON (AP) — The truth in lending law takes effect today, enabling consumers to know at the outset how much credit will cost.

It won't make credit any cheaper. But it will more easily allow borrowers to shop around for the best terms.

For the first time, under the law signed by President Lyndon B. Johnson last year, lenders will be required to furnish potential borrowers with complete information on how much credit will cost, with a realistic statement of the interest charge.

Following Last Minute Bomb Shakes Plea Surtax Extension Bill Narrowly Passed

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Republican House member charged today that he was threatened with loss of funds for a water project in his district if he voted against extension of the income surtax bill.

"My vote was not for sale," Rep. William L. Scott, R-Va., told the house.

The bill passed the House Monday on a 210-205 vote. The bill passed after a last-minute plea from President Nixon and after strong pressure from leaders of both parties.

Scott said that during the vote a member of the House public works appropriations subcommittee approached him "and said that unless I voted in favor of the surtax, planning funds in the sum of $175,000 for the Salem Church Dam in my district would not be approved."

Scott, who voted against the bill, did not identify the subcommittee member to whom he referred.

The tax extension bill now goes to the Senate where leaders predict consideration may take three months.

Technically the 10 per cent surtax expired at midnight, only hours after the House action.

However, Congress already has voted to continue the withholding rates which include the surcharge through July, and the tax itself can later be extended retroactive to July 1. Senate leaders have said a further 6-day extension of the withholding rates probably will be sought.

Nixon wants the surtax to continue at a 10 per cent rate through December and then at 5 per cent until the end of next June.

Opposition to the bill has come mainly from congressmen who fear any chance for far-reaching tax reforms will be lost if not included in the surtax extension measure.

Just before the close of House debate Monday night, Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford read a letter from the President aimed at swaying such opponents.

"I want to remove any vestige of doubt as to the commitment of this administration to prompt and meaningful tax reform," Nixon said.

Earlier in the day Nixon met at the White House with 28 Republican congressmen, most of them opponents of the surtax

Teachers Sue When Contracts Not Renewed

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Four Negro teachers whose contracts weren't renewed for next fall filed suit Monday in federal courts to get their jobs back.

Three of the suits were filed in U.S. District Court at El Dorado and one in federal court at Little Rock.

Mrs. Bernice Hardiman filed the suit in Little Rock, contending that racial discrimination was involved in her dismissal from her job at the integrated Plumerville Elementary School.

Filing suit at El Dorado were Charles F. Champion a teacher at all-Negro Carver School at Stephens; W. C. Tims, who was principal and a teacher at all-Negro Southside School at McNeil; and Eve V. Hegler, who was a teacher at the all-Negro Ouachita County Training School.

Miss Hegler said the school was being closed. She asked that defendants in her suit be restrained from closing the school and "overcrowding" the Bearden school.

She also seeks to prevent the training school from being reopened with a white principal and supervisory staff.

House Democratic leaders gave strong support to the extension, but only 56 votes for the bill came from that side of the aisle. Opposed were 179 Democrats.

Argentina Under State of Siege

By WILLIAM H. HEATH
Associated Press Writer
BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Argentina was under a state of siege today as terrorism and labor unrest continued to shake the nation during gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's fact-finding visit for President Nixon.

The government broadcast the state of siege declaration Monday night, two hours before a 24-hour nationwide general strike was scheduled to begin in protest against the New York governor's visit and the policies of President Juan Carlos Onganía's military regime.

Rockefeller planned to leave for Haiti this morning after a 36-hour stay in Argentina and talks with Onganía during the fourth leg of his mission to Latin America.

The general strike was called by the strong antigovernment faction of the General Labor Confederation (CGT), headed by printers union President Raimundo Ongaro. Union sources said Ongaro was arrested Monday.

Police closed the labor organization's headquarters Monday night, and a police official said only that the government had "intervened."

Hours before, Augustin Vando, leader of the moderate wing of the CGT, was killed in a daring daylight attack on his office in downtown Buenos Aires. Terrorists burst into the union headquarters, fired several machine gun bursts into Vando's office and tossed a bomb through the door.

Vando, 44, was secretary-general of the metal workers union and had refused to support the call for a general strike. His death was the 22nd in the six-week wave of antigovernment unrest that began when a student demonstrator was killed in Corrientes May 19.

Demonstrations first were aimed at "police repression," then developed into protests against the economic, political and social policies of the Onganía regime.

Bomb Shakes Train Carrying Prince Charles

CAERNARON, Wales (AP) — A bomb shook the royal train that brought Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Charles today to his investiture here as the Prince of Wales.

Witnesses said the explosion tore up a section of railroad track less than a mile from Caernarvon Castle.

The royal train had halted in a field about three-quarters of a mile in back of the spot where the bomb exploded just after the queen and other members of the royal family alighted at a special platform.

Crewmen on the royal train said it shook.

The explosion came soon after a special train bearing celebrities had passed by on its way to the town.

Two youths were arrested within moments of the explosion near the scene but in general confusion it was impossible to tell immediately whether they were directly involved.

Meanwhile, in Caernarvon it self several arrests were made

Free Food Stamp Issue Loses Round

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Agriculture Committee voted today to authorize the Department of Agriculture to establish federal food stamp programs in counties that have refused to do so, provided the state governor gives his approval.

About 400 counties, many in the rural South, have talked at setting up food stamp or other government distribution programs.

The committee completed work on a comprehensive food stamp revision bill, which also directs the Agriculture Department to establish minimum and maximum standards of eligibility for food stamp recipients.

Under this provision, a state could not require potential recipients to meet a different income standard than the national level.

The bill would authorize $750 million for the program in the fiscal year which started today — a figure already approved by the Senate in a separate bill — and would double this to $1.5 billion in each of the two succeeding years.

The present authorization level for the current year is $340 million. The administration has proposed that this be increased to $610 million.

The committee rejected Monday a proposal to give free food stamps to impoverished families, but supporters said they would continue their battle on the Senate floor later this month.

The free stamp proposal has been on a 7-5 vote.

Enemy Hit Hard by U.S. Armored Cars

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — Thirty American armored vehicles smashed into North Vietnamese troops maneuvering around Tay Ninh City today and raked them for nearly three hours with thousands of rounds of machine gun fire, military spokesmen reported.

The spokesmen said 42 North Vietnamese soldiers were counted dead in the fight 55 miles northwest of Saigon while American casualties were one killed and one wounded.

The dead enemy were identified as soldiers of the 88th Regiment, 9th Division, elements of which were intercepted only four days ago by U.S. 25th Division infantrymen as they tried to march on Tay Ninh City. Nearly 100 enemy soldiers were killed in the Friday battle. Both clashes were on the southeastern side of Nui Ba Den Mountain.

The enemy's 9th Division tried to overrun Tay Ninh City June 19, but the attempt was smashed by allied forces who claimed killing 500 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese in fierce battles around the key provincial capital.

U.S. military analysts said captured documents indicate the mission of the 9th Division is to seize portions of Tay Ninh City and hold them for three to five days, mainly for propaganda purposes. Such a temporary occupation would discredit the Saigon regime by showing enemy troops can enter places under government control.

Action also flared near the abandoned combat base at Khe Sanh. Two hours before dawn North Vietnamese troops attacked a night base camp of the U.S. 5th Mechanized Infantry Division near the Laotian border, but they were beaten back.

Spokesmen said 31 North Vietnamese were killed while only three Americans were wounded. The U.S. forces were supported by air and artillery strikes.

The U.S. Command lifted the security wraps off a new operation against Viet Cong forces on Barrier Island, about 20 to 25 miles southeast of Da Nang. It, said a battalion of 1,200 U.S. Marines of the 26th Regiment was landed by ship and helicopter on the island last Friday but so far has reported only light and scattered contact.

Spokesmen said 21 Viet Cong troops had been killed while American casualties were one killed and 16 wounded.

The operation, named "Bold Pursuit," also involves elements of the U.S. Army's Americal Division and South Vietnamese militiamen.

Six Americans were reported killed and 16 wounded 90 miles south of Da Nang Monday night when an enemy land mine blew up as an army medical evacuation helicopter came in to lift out wounded.

Meanwhile, the threat to Ben Het eased, but military spokesmen said U.S. intelligence detected a new buildup of North Vietnamese troops farther south along the Cambodian border.

Pat, Richard Feel Crunch of Home Financing

By DICK BARNES
Associated Press Writer
KEY BISCAYNE, Fla. (AP) — Richard M. Nixon and Pat R. Nixon, his wife, hereinafter called the mortgagors, join millions of Americans today in feeling the home financing crunch. Their first monthly payment of $740 is due on the $100,000, 25-year mortgage they took out May 22 on a home they purchased Dec. 19.

The mortgagors, who also have a Washington residence, are paying 7½ per cent interest on the home loan from Greater Miami Federal Savings and Loan Association. That's less than in some areas of the country, but it's the going rate around Miami.

The Nixons paid $127,800 for the house at 516 Bay Lane, Key Biscayne, according to land records, so the mortgage is for 78 per cent of its value. Greater Miami normally loans up to 80 per cent for conventional mortgages.

The house, which was purchased from wealthy Cuban exile Manuel Arca Jr., is a rambling, pale-blue structure 200 feet from the shore of Biscayne Bay. It is surrounded by 10-foot-high hibiscus bushes and the street is blocked to public traffic by the Secret Service.

The mortgage on it isn't Nixon's only home finance headache—his taxes just went up, too.

The assessment on the house was $56,100 in 1968, but was increased in May to $93,070. The assessment on the house next door, which the Nixons also own, went from $60,650 to $75,860 as part of the pattern of skyrocketing Key Biscayne values.

The property tax bill this year on the two houses will be more than $3,700.

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

MR. and MRS. LARRY HUGH STROUD

The First Assembly of God Church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Janetta Sue Russell and Larry Hugh Stroud on Friday, June 20 at 7:30 in the evening. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James Charles Russell and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stroud, all of Hope.

The Reverend Joe Jones, pastor of the Washington United Methodist Church officiated at the double-ring ceremony before an arch of huckleberry, white doves and ribbons, and candelabra. Mrs. Arthur Strech, organist, played a program of nuptial music, including the traditional wedding marches, and as the couple knelt on a prie Dieu following the exchange of vows, she played the Lord's Prayer. Candles were lighted by Miss Cathy Cox, cousin of the groom, Jerry Lynn Stroud and David Terrell Stroud, brothers of the groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown of formal length fashioned with a lace bodice and long sleeves. The train which swept from her shoulders was trimmed with appliques of lace. Her veil of silk illusion was held in place by a headpiece of tiny wedding bells outlined with seed pearls. The bride carried a white Bible topped with with carnations that were centered with a white orchid.

Miss Janice Marie Russell was her sister's honor attendant. Her full-length, A-line dress was pale blue enhanced with white lace and dark blue ribbon that ended in back streamers. Her headpiece was of blue ribbon and net, and she carried a single, long-stemmed red rose.

Dressed in similar fashion and carrying red roses were bridesmaids Miss Janey Seamans and Miss Robyn Galloway. Miss Cathy Russell, cousin of the bride and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Grant Russell of Dallas, was the flower girl. Master Richard Cox, cousin of the groom and son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Cox, was the ring bearer.

Gene Walters served the groom as best man. Groomsmen were Richard Sallee and Randy O'Steen, while Earl Ray Murphy, uncle of the bride, and Jerry Lynn Stroud, brother of the groom, ushered.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Russell wore a mint green and white jacket dress with white and black accessories. Mrs. Stroud, mother of groom, wore beige lace with beige and brown accessories. Each had a yellow cymbidium orchid corsage. At the conclusion of the ceremony, the bride gave a long-stemmed red rose to the groom's mother, and the groom gave a long-stemmed red rose to the bride's mother, symbolizing their family unity.

A reception followed in the fellowship hall of the church, where blue dahlias, white roses, and votive candles were used in decoration. Serving the tiered wedding cake and the fruit punch were aunts of the bride, Mrs. Billy Grant Russell of Dallas, Mrs. Donald Jones and Mrs. Earl Ray Murphy.

A memory candle marked the table where Miss Carla Turner presided at the bride's book. Miss Cathy Cox, cousin of the groom, and Miss Elizabeth Russell of Dallas, cousin of the bride, dispensed rice bags to the guests.

Several relatives of the wedding couple were presented white cymbidium orchids. They included: Mrs. Emmett Murphy and Mrs. Clifford Russell, grandmothers of the bride; Mrs. Ben Stroud, grandmother of the groom; Mrs. Cleo Russell of Okolona, great-grandmother of the bride; and Mrs. Jess Morris, great-aunt of the bride.

Trip Ends in Tragedy for 2 Old Ladies

By ERIC SHARP
Associated Press Writer
CLERMONT, Fla. (AP) — Two elderly sisters with a pocketbook full of directions wandered for three days on a 20-mile auto trip before one died and the other collapsed.

Katherine Freidrich, 80, and her sister Louisa, 84, visited the Lake County tax assessor Friday in the central Florida community of Tavares. Then they began the drive to Clermont, where the retired teachers lived with their two older sisters.

A power company crew found Katherine's body sprawled in an orange grove Monday. A police search party found Louisa, confused and incoherent, lying 200 yards away.

Police Chief Prentice Tyndall of Clermont said car tracks showed the women turned off U.S. Highway 27 on to a clay road and drove two miles into the grove. They then turned up a sandy path where their car bogged down to its hubcaps.

"Their two older sisters, one about 86 and the other near 90, called us when Katherine and Louisa didn't come home Friday night," Tyndall said.

He said Katherine's old, cracked leather purse was packed with scraps of paper scrawled over with highway directions.

"They stopped at various places to ask the way home but they just kept getting lost," Tyndall added.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The past television season was one in which the commercial networks vied to bring original "meaningful drama" to the adult audience. Next season, it appears, will be the one in which they will share the wealth with the child viewers.

NBC already has announced plans for seven special programs, each an original with a sizeable budget. CBS, which set up a "Children's Hour" as a sort of son of "CBS Playhouse," announced Monday details for three Saturday morning specials and there may even be one more if suitable original material can be found.

By now it is well established that Saturday morning on the networks is kiddy time. For a considerable period, each of the three networks filled the hours with solid blocks of cartoons — mostly old short subjects originally made for theatres and more recently with new animated programs.

The generally shoddy quality of those old TV programs for children has been increasingly a matter of criticism. It is logical to presume that current network efforts to upgrade the broadcasts is a response to the criticism.

Network executives prefer, however, to say "it was just something that we felt should be done," or that it has become important to "correct the balance of programming."

Whatever the reason, there has been, at least by CBS and NBC, a marked change in the type of shows seen by upwards of 15 million children up to the age of 13 who watch television Saturday mornings.

By next season, NBC's morning lineup will lean heavily on fantasy. CBS will go in, as it has this season, for comedy. Not long ago, the cartoons that were run and rerun were in that category euphemistically criticized for their violence.

One Saturday morning last March, an estimated 14 million television sets were tuned to stations affiliated with one or another of three networks. CBS' "Archie" and NBC's rerun of "The Flintstones" were competing with ABC's "Spiderman" for attention.

That represents a lot of children, even if there had been only one child watching each set.

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT!

This column is for young people, their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help Us!, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush off.

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED FOR IT, care of Helen Help Us! this newspaper.

NO WAY TO ACT AT A SLUMBER PARTY

Dear Helen: What do you think of a girl who, when you invite her to a slumber party, all she wants to do is sleep? —JANICE

Dear Janice: She's a mother's dream and a teenager's party-pooper. But give her time — SHE'LL LEARN. —H.

Dear Helen: Boy, do I have a problem! There was a boy I used to like and he liked me too. He gave me presents and cards. Well, I stopped liking him but he didn't get the message and I was real bored for a while. I worry about myself because this has happened before.

He finally simmered down and stopped calling. Boy, is this dumb — because now I like him again! But he won't even look at me. Do you think I could ever get him back. —CRAZY CAT

Dear Cat: Maybe — next year, when you both mature a bit. You didn't give your age, but I'd guess you're pretty new at dating, and you're going through your "conquest" period. You like a boy only until he starts getting possessive and then you want out. Or perhaps you discover he's "just ordinary" up close. Or you might even be the unsure type who subconsciously thinks, "If he likes ME, he couldn't be so much after all." So you try for the next "unreachable," and you have a great time dreaming about him — until he falls.

Presently, you're more intrigued with the IDEA of liking boys, than with the boys themselves. Right? (And don't answer that until 1970, when you MAY look back and agree with me.) —H.

Dear Helen: All my life I've been a chronic giggler. I giggle when there's something funny, but mainly when I'm nervous. I'm an awful introvert and whenever I'm around people my embarrassment comes out in giggling. I thought I'd outgrow it, but now that I'm married, it's even worse because my husband notices it and that makes two of us upset.

Do you think hypnosis would help? —GIGGLER

Dear Giggler: I think a new and better opinion of yourself would help. Hypnotism might give you a start, but it's basically up to YOU to substitute: "I'm a worthwhile person" for "I'm an awful introvert." Then those nervous giggles will gradually fade away. —H.

Dear Helen: This letter is to all those laughing citizens in this so-called "City of Hospitality."

I am 19 years old and have long hair. In our small town, a long-haired male is shunned unless, of course, he has a new car and a fat billfold.

I am by no means a hippie. I take a bath every day, wash my hair and brush my teeth regularly, which is probably more than can be said of some of the laughers.

How can adults put me down when they spend most of their spare time in bars? —L.L.L.

Dear L.L.L.: Because conformity is next to (maybe ABOVE) Godliness in a small town, where no one is awed by the odd. Unless you enjoy this put-down, you'd better take a few inches of your hairline, or put a few miles between you and "Hospitality City." —H.

Dear Helen: I've been a chronic giggler. I giggle when there's something funny, but mainly when I'm nervous. I'm an awful introvert and whenever I'm around people my embarrassment comes out in giggling. I thought I'd outgrow it, but now that I'm married, it's even

Smithsonian Has Folklife Festival

WASHINGTON (AP) — Whittling, fiddling, square dancing, sheep shearing, quilting, make-believe moonshine — it will all be on the Washington Mall for the next six days as part of the Smithsonian's third annual Festival of American Folklife.

Some 300 craftsmen, musicians from 30 states will show something of America's traditional ways. About 500,000 people visited the exhibits, concerts and demonstrations last year.

The music gives some idea of the diversity with concerts by the Jelly Roll Memorial band, gospel, ballads, the Louisiana French Cajun band, hoedowns, blues, and an Afro-Cuban group from Spanish Harlem.

The Smithsonian found a fellow from Wildcat Road, North Carolina to give a demonstration of how moonshine is made. Federal tax men insisted that the still produce something besides real moonshine.

Brush 'em Clean

Nail brushes come in several styles, all with stiff short bristles designed to work soap under and around nails. This is a must for both men and women, particularly after dirty work. Such a brush figures in pedicures also, not only to clean and condition toenails, but to help smooth small calluses.

Phils Don't Show They Miss Richie

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Dear Richie... wherever you are:
Don't call us; we'll call you!
Love,
Bob Skinner

Skinner, of course, wouldn't think of sending such a message to Richie Allen m... even if he knew where to send it. The Philadelphia manager misses his runaway superstar. So do all the Phillies.

They just don't show it.

The Phillies reeled off their seventh consecutive victory Monday night, trimming Pittsburgh 4-2 behind the hitting of Mike Rayan and Johnny Briggs.

Allen vanished into the night a week ago at New York and the Phils, beset by injuries before his disappearance, lost both ends of a doubleheader to the Mets. They haven't been beaten since then.

While Skinner waited in vain for a phone call from Allen Monday, the Phils placed outfielder Johnny Callison, their only other standout, on the 21-day disabled list with a severe pulled groin muscle.

Then they struggled past the Pirates as Ryan clubbed a two-run homer, Briggs delivered a pair of key singles and reliever John Bozzer pitched out of a bases-loaded bind in the ninth inning, saving the victory for left-hander Woody Fryman.

Elsewhere, Atlanta's Phil Niekro became the majors' first 13-game winner with a 9-4 nod over Cincinnati; Los Angeles hipped Houston 7-1 on Claude Osteen's four-hitter; New York buried St. Louis 10-2 on a three-hitter by Jim McAndrew; Montreal upended the Chicago Cubs 5-2 and San Francisco bounced San Diego 6-1.

In the American League, Kansas City shaded California 2-1 and Minnesota downed Chicago 7-3. Cleveland and Washington were rained out and the other AL clubs weren't scheduled.

The Phillies staked former Pirate Fryman to a 4-0 lead with the help of Ryan's ninth homer, a fourth inning shot that followed Larry Hise's triple. The Pirates got on run back in the seventh, then chased Fryman with four hits in the ninth. But Bozzer came on and retired pinch hitter Willie Stargell on a pop to second for the last out.

NIEKRO, 13-5, survived 11 Cincinnati hits and four wild pitches—one short of the major league record—as the Braves hung one-half game behind first place Los Angeles in the West Division race.

Hank Aaron drilled his 21st homer, a three-run shot that keyed Atlanta's six-run third inning explosion. Niekro opened the third with a single and doubled home two runs in the fifth.

O'Steen, 10-6, retired the last 14 Astros he faced and held them hitless until the seventh inning, when a walk and one-out singles by Doug Rader and Marty Martinez ruined his shutout bid. Wes Parker doubled home the second of two first inning runs and singled to ignite another two-run rally in the third.

McAndrew, 2-2, weathered bases-empty homers by Joe Torre and Dal Maxvill after the Mets struck for six first innings

Piniella Is a Killebrew to Athletics

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer
Harmon Killebrew has driven in twice as many runs as Lou Piniella, but to Kansas City fans Piniella is their Killebrew.

Both players figured prominently in their teams' victories Monday night as Minnesota whipped the Chicago White Sox 7-3 and Kansas City edged California 2-1.

Killebrew collected three hits and drove in three runs for Minnesota while Piniell drove in both runs, the second with a ninth-inning homer, for Kansas City.

The only other scheduled American League game, Washington at Cleveland, was rained out.

In the National League, Philadelphia trimmed Pittsburgh 4-2, the New York Mets clobbered St. Louis 10-2, Atlanta downed Cincinnati 9-4, Montreal knocked off the Chicago Cubs 5-2, San Francisco whipped San Diego 6-1 and Los Angeles drubbed Houston 7-1.

Piniella, whose runs batted in against California gave him 35 for the season, was a relative latecomer to the new Royals, but he became an instant hit with the fans.

For example, on opening day he lashed a double and three singles in the Royals' 12-inning, 4-3 victory over Minnesota. The next day he singled home the winning run in another 4-3 triumph, this time in 47 innings.

It was quite a debut for a guy the Royals acquired shortly before in a trade with the league's other expansion team, Seattle. The Pilots had drafted him from Cleveland.

"I think it helps a player to have the fans with him," the 25-year-old outfielder says. "I was glad to come over to the Kansas City organization. I had heard good things about it even before the trade was made. I'm very happy here."

Elsewhere, Atlanta's Phil Niekro became the majors' first 13-game winner with a 9-4 nod over Cincinnati; Los Angeles hipped Houston 7-1 on Claude Osteen's four-hitter; New York buried St. Louis 10-2 on a three-hitter by Jim McAndrew; Montreal upended the Chicago Cubs 5-2 and San Francisco bounced San Diego 6-1.

Cleveland Hit Frooly But Travs Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Reggie Cleveland was tapped for nine hits but was effective in the clutches, as Arkansas beat Memphis 5-3 Monday night.

Cleveland became the first pitcher in the Texas League to win 10 games. He has lost three.

Cleveland worked out of jams in the 4th and 6th innings. He left 10 Memphis runners stranded in the game.

Walks to Gino Maltrena and Rogers Robinson were followed by a passed ball and Ray Tromblino's two-run single in the 9th, to score the winning runs.

Bob Johnson, normally a starter, took the loss, his first in five decisions. Johnson worked only the 9th inning.

In other games, Dallas-Fort Worth defeated Albuquerque 7-3 and Shreveport swept a doubleheader from San Antonio 7-5 and 8-7. El Paso and Amarillo were rained out.

runs—the last three on Jerry Grote's first homer of the season. Art Shamsky also homered for New York as the sinking Cardinals dropped their fourth straight.

Coco Laboy poked two singles, driving in three runs, and Montreal stopped the Cubs behind right-hander Howie Reed. The loss cut Chicago's East Division lead over second place New York to seven games.

Mike McCormick scattered seven hits and Willie Mays, Willie McCovey and Ron Hunt knocked in two runs apiece, leading the Giants past the Padres, who have lost three games in a row, 14 of their last 16 and 22 of 25 since June 6.

Laver Faces Player He Fears Most

By GEOFFREY MILLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Rod Laver, who started the Wimbledon tennis tournament odds-on favorite, today faced the man he most fears—Cliff Drysdale, the South African with the double-handed backhand.

They clashed in the quarter-finals of the All-England Championships, and Drysdale held a psychological advantage. He defeated Laver in the U.S. Open Championships at Forest Hills, N.Y., last year, and he beat him again in a best-of-3-set affair in the West of England Championships three weeks ago.

"Each time I won by keeping the ball away from Laver's backhand," Drysdale said. "When you're playing the man with the best backhand in the business, that's the thing to do."

Laver, the defending champion, was still rated favorite for the first prize of $7,200 despite a none too impressive record in reaching the round of eight. He dropped two sets to Premjit Lal of India in the second round, and two sets to Stan Smith, the U.S. Davis Cup star from Pasadena, Calif., in the fourth.

Meanwhile, at least one American was certain to reach the semifinals. Arthur Ashe, the reigning U.S. champion from Richmond, Va., was paired against Bob Lutz of Los Angeles in today's quarters.

Ashe has been struggling to find his old form since suffering an elbow injury earlier this year.

"It's not hurting me any more," Ashe said. "But I haven't got my rhythm back properly."

Ashe has been serving at three-quarter speed and was taken to five sets by Terry Ryan of South Africa and Graham Stilwell of Britain before reaching the last eight. But he played his best tennis to date in defeating Pancho Gonzalez, 41-year-old Los Angeles veteran, in the fourth round.

One other American is concerned in the quarter-finals—Clark Graebner, the big serving Davis cupper from New York. He faced Tony Roche of Australia, who lost to Laver in last year's final.

Mrs. Billie Jean King, the reigning women's champion from Long Beach, Calif., came safely through a quarter-final cliff-hanger Monday to defeat Judy Tegart of Australia 4-6, 7-5, 8-6.

In the semi-finals Wednesday, Mrs. King will have to play her friend and fellow-professional of the touring circuit, Rosemary Casals of San Francisco. Miss Casals overcame Mrs. Lesley Bowrey of Australia 3-6, 9-7, 7-6 after trailing in both the second and third sets.

The other semifinal will be between Mrs. Ann Jones of Britain and the top seed, Mrs. Margaret Court of Australia. Mrs. Jones defeated Nancy Richey of San Angelo, Tex., 6-2, 7-5, and Mrs. Court outlasted Julie Heldman of New York City, 4-6, 6-3, 6-3.

Whitworth, Caponi Big Cash Winners

CINCINNATI (AP)—Donna Caponi and Kathy Whitworth made the biggest gains Sunday among top money winners on the Ladies Professional Golf Association tour.

Miss Whitworth, the tour's leading money winner, finished third in the Open and her check was for only $455. She now has a total of $18,554 in winnings.

Striking down the opposition on a hot afternoon, Lee and Henry Fenwick of Hope successfully defended their Hope Country Club Four-Ball title, winning by two strokes Sunday with a 137 total for the 36-hole competition.

Local golfers Mitch LaGrone and David Waddle wound up second in the championship flight, followed at 140 by W.H. Neely and Halsey Moore of Texarkana.

The Fenwicks had jumped to a three-stroke margin after the Saturday round, firing a five-under par 65 while Neely and Moore were second at 68. Scores went up with tougher pin placements in the final day's competition, but a two-over 72 was enough to earn the victory for the Fenwicks, a father-son team.

One other partnership won their flight for the second straight year, as Ralph Routon and Jack Turner of Hope won the 3rd flight with a 147 total.

Paul Whitley of Magnolia and Pat Cauley of Nashville had the day's best score, carding a two-under 68 to win the first flight by four strokes.

Three Drive in Two for Giants

SAN DIEGO (AP)—Willie Mays, Willie McCovey and Ron Hunt each drove in two runs Monday night as the San Francisco Giants whipped San Diego 6-1, pinning the Padres with their 14th setback in the last 15 games.

Left-hander Mike McCormick, 4-3, scattered seven hits, hurling the Giants to their seventh victory in eight meetings with the slump-ridden National League expansion club. The Padres have lost three straight and 22 of 25 since June 6.

Laker Coach Didn't Score for Celtics

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Twenty years after he averaged less than a point a game playing for the Boston Celtics, Joe Mullaney returns to the National Basketball Association as a coach seeking a championship. The Los Angeles Lakers, losers to Boston in the final play-offs the past two seasons, hired Mullaney from Providence College and handed him a three-year contract believed to call for $40,000 per season.

Redlegs Give Hurling Foes Nightmares

By JOHN W. CHACE
CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds, headed by five players not previously known for exceptional slugging prowess, are giving opposing pitchers and managers nightmares this year. Most Reds' hurlers cannot wait to pitch because of the hitting and comeback ability.

Spurred by Lee May, Tony Perez, Bobby Tolan, John Bench and Alex Johnson, the Reds boast an all-around attack stronger than that of the awesome 1956 squad which tied a National League record with 221 homers.

The Reds pace the league in homers with 83 and batting average with .288. Each of the five plus Pete Rose is batting over .300 and no National League team since before 1945 has hit as high for the season as the Reds are now.

The league record is .319 by the old New York Giants in 1930. May, whose 22 homers top Cincinnati batters, thinks the Reds' "chances are good" of breaking the home run record.

"We have a lot of capable home run hitters in the line-up all the way. We also have some pitchers who have hit homers" this year—Jim Maloney and Clay Carroll.

With nearly the same line-up as last year except for Tolan, Cincinnati cracked only 106 homers. The 1956 team was composed of sluggers such as Frank Robinson with 38 homers, Wally Post 36, Ted Kluszewski 35, Gus Bell 29 and Ed Bailey 28.

At the Reds' current pace, they would hit about 193 homers. But May with 22, Perez 17, Tolan 13, Bench 11 and Johnson 10, would finish slightly above the 1956 quintet's total of 166 homers.

Arkansan Is Trailing in Senior Meet

GLENEAGLES, Scotland (AP)—W. E. "Junie" Dowell of Walnut Ridge, Ark., shot a 76 Monday in the first round of the fourth international senior golf tournament.

Dowell is seven strokes back of the leader, Curtis Person of Memphis, who opened with a three-under par 69 over the King's 6,705-yard course. Defending champion Bob Loufek of Moline, Ill., had a 70.

Encke's comet is the one which appears most frequently. It travels around the sun once in every 3 1/2 years.

Astronauts Undergo 2nd Physical

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer
CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—The Apollo 11 astronauts today undergo the second of three major physical examinations before taking off for the moon.

Neil A. Armstrong, Edwin E. Aldrin Jr., and Michael Collins planned several hours with the doctors who are drawing a thorough medical profile of the spacemen for in-flight and post-flight comparison.

The first exam was completed June 16. Another is set for July 11, five days before the astronauts are launched on the moon-landing journey.

The medical information will be particularly important when Armstrong and Aldrin walk the lunar surface July 21. It will provide clues to when the astronauts might be tiring in the unfamiliar one-sixth gravity field on the moon.

While the astronauts are on the surface, doctors in the mission control center will monitor heart rate, oxygen consumption and temperature of the suit cooling water as it enters and leaves the system. The latter will be an indirect measurement of the amount of heat produced by the body.

Dr. Charles A. Berry, the astronauts' chief medical officer, explained:

"We know what their work capacity on earth is at various heart rate plateaus—120 beats a minute, 140, 160 etc.

He said this information will be stored in a computer in the control center and will be correlated with data received during the moon walk.

Berry said the astronauts might find it difficult to work in their bulky space suits in the low gravity "and we want to make certain they don't get tired."

At the launch pad, crews continued a lengthy countdown test. The test is to end Thursday with the three astronauts participating in a mock liftoff. Success would clear the way for starting the final countdown next week, aiming for 9:32 a.m. EDT blastoff July 16.

Israeli Jets Strafe, Bomb Arab Bases

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Israeli jet fighters bombed and strafed four Arab bases on Jordan's east bank at dawn and killed one Jordanian soldier, reports from Amman and Tel Aviv said today.

A Jordanian army spokesman said five planes attacked southern Shuneh and Wadi Shaib, 19 miles southwest of Amman and two miles east of the Allenby bridge, with rockets and machine guns.

He said one Arab soldier was killed and one civilian injured before Jordanian artillery "forced the jets to flee."

The Israeli army said the planes bombed four Arab "sabotage bases"—one at Wadi Shaib bridge, one at Arjan about 10 miles east of the Jordan River ceasefire line, and two others about 11 miles east of the Allenby bridge near the Dead Sea.

Tel Aviv said the planes returned to their base unscathed following the 30-minute raid.

Israeli jets have raided Jordanian territory almost daily in recent weeks. On Monday, Tel Aviv reported that warplanes strafed and bombed Jordanian guerrilla positions south of the Sea of Galilee after Arab guerrillas fired on an Israeli army patrol without inflicting any casualties.

Heart Recipient Has Active, Normal Life

By EARLEEN FISHER
Associated Press Writer
INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—A 44-year-old Indianapolis school teacher with a 17-year-old heart says he feels like "nothing's ever been changed."

America's longest surviving heart transplant recipient, Louis B. Russell Jr., is paneling his basement walls, bicycles regularly with his children, and recently climbed up on the roof of his two-story house for a repair job.

A year ago, he says, he was in "bad, bad shape."

That was before he entered the hospital at the Medical College of Virginia in Richmond where on Aug. 24, 1968, he became the world's 34th heart transplant patient.

Russell resumed teaching industrial arts this spring.

He speaks before local clubs and statewide meetings in Indianapolis. He has made dozens of talks since last January and is booked through next February.

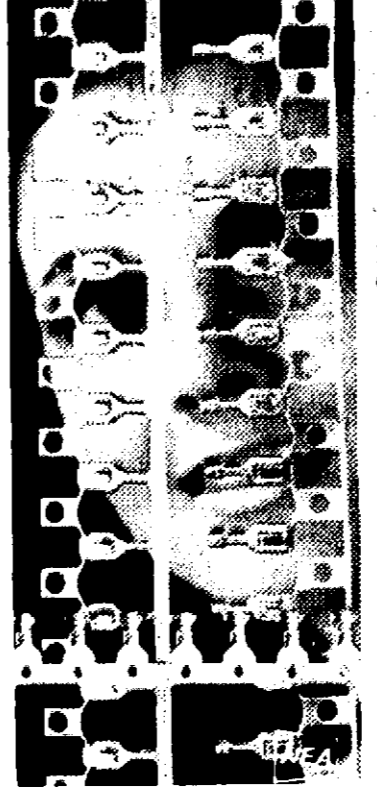

Russell said his checkup this month is an exploratory operation to see if what condition the heart is in.

After being considered for the transplant last year, Russell talked with his wife and four children.

He decided that "if I didn't survive, I'd be asleep. I wouldn't know anything about it. And if I did or didn't survive, look at the millions of people we would have helped. It was a chance for me and a chance for them. I knew they didn't do this unless you're dying."

Russell added: "I am a Christian. I believe the doctors had a lot to do with this, but I believe God had a lot to do with it, too."

The University of Bologna, Italy, was founded in 1088.

Andretti and Unser Head Large Field

CASTLE ROCK, Colo. (AP)—Veterans Mario Andretti and Bobby Unser head a large field for the second annual Rocky Mountain 150 road race at Continental Divide Raceway Sunday.

Andretti, winner of this year's Indianapolis 500, and Unser, a victor in the stock car class at last week's Pikes Peak Hill Climb, are rated the favorites in the $35,000 race. Other top drivers, including A. J. Foyt, Gordon Johncock, Art Pollard, Dan Gurney and Roger McCluskey, are entered.

Negroes Prod Church Onto a New Course

BOSTON (AP)—Prodded by a Negro clergy group, the United Church of Christ embarked today on broad new course to a bolster black influence in the church, and to back large-scale black development projects in America.

"We've come together from poles apart and now are moving ahead with a common consensus," said the Rev. Lawrence L. Durgin, a white New York City minister.

The 700 delegates of the two million-member church's assembly adopted Monday night a wide-ranging series of new programs to augment black decision-making power in the church and to upgrade conditions among black people.

The measures were drawn up at the urging of a mostly Negro faction called Ministers for Racial and Social Justice. The actions include these provisions:

—That blacks be given pre-dominant supervision of the church arm for adding minorities—the American Missionary Association—with $1 million a year to spend.

—That a black-controlled Commission on Racial Justice be set up, with immediate income from sources that last year totaled $401,000, and a firmer budget beginning next year.

—That the church's major national agencies give a "significant role" in decision-making to black representatives, as recommended by the black clergy group, led by the Rev. Dr. Edwin Edmonds of New Haven, Conn.

—That the church, with other denominations, explore possibilities for establishing a top-grade black college, black publishing industries, black communications training, and a southern land bank for underwriting cooperative farms for Negroes.

A group led by black militant James Forman has been pressuring religious bodies for large-scale financial grants to blacks.

About 70,000 church members—3.5 per cent of the denomination—are black.

Still to be acted on by the assembly is a proposed $10 million "United Black Appeal" to better conditions among the needy. The denomination already is spending about $3.5 million annually on various projects among the poor, mostly Negroes.

Q—I perspire so much that even wearing dress shields doesn't protect my clothes. I have tried several antiperspirants but they don't help. What do you advise?

A—The effectiveness of antiperspirants is limited. After a short period of control, there may be a rebound or increase in perspiration. Excessive sweating can be controlled with a variety of drugs taken by mouth but, because of possible side effects, they must be taken under careful medical supervision.

Q—I've been having night sweats for over a year. My scalp gets as wet as if I'd ducked my head in a pan of water. What causes this and what can I do for it?

A—Night sweats may be caused by tuberculosis, a deficiency of vitamin C or D or a general rundown condition. If your doctor can find the cause, he should be able to help you.

Q—Why does excessive salt form in my eyebrows?

A—The salt is a residue of sweating and in this location it is usually a result of nervous tension.

Q—What are arteriosclerosis obliterans and arteriosclerotic heart disease with angina pectoris and osteoporosis, generalized?

A—Arteriosclerosis obliterans is a severe hardening of the arteries that completely blocks the flow of blood. This is seen most commonly in the legs and in the coronary vessels of the heart. In the latter it would cause a heart attack. Such an attack would be associated with a severe pain on the left side of the chest, the pain of angina pectoris—a term usually reserved for temporary spasms in a coronary artery rather than a complete obstruction.

Osteoporosis is a weakening of the bones due to failure to maintain the normal level of calcium phosphate. When the involvement is widespread throughout the body, it is said to be generalized.

Q—I have heard that eating charcoal-broiled steaks causes cancer. If this is true, wouldn't the activated charcoal you recommended for persons with sour stomach be even more harmful?

A—The furor over charcoal broiling was short-lived. No harm from this source was ever proved. Activated charcoal tablets have long been approved by the Food and Drug Administration for excessive belching or gas in the bowel.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Popcorn, one of many types of corn, is a favorite American confection. When heated, steam forms within the grains, enlarging them six to eight times and causing them to "pop" or explode. The World Almanac says Popcorn was introduced to the English colonists at Thanksgiving dinner in 1630 by the Indian Quadequina as his contribution to the festivities.

Opening lead—A Q

South's no-trump opening was normal in spite of the lack of a diamond stopper. He had 16 points and no-trump distribution. North's raise to game was in the nature of a gamble. He hoped his club suit would provide his partner with enough tricks to make the no-trump game. He wanted to have no part of an attempt to take 11 tricks at five clubs.

West opened the queen of spades. South looked over dummy and saw that he was going to have to knock out the ace of clubs before he could run off anything like nine tricks. He also saw that a spade continuation was going to give him all the time he needed but, meanwhile, the diamond suit was wide open and nothing could be done about it.

He decided to win the first spade in dummy. West would know where the ace was but East could not be sure. At trick two he led dummy's queen of clubs. West let it hold on general principles. A second club was led from dummy and at this point East came up with the killing defensive play.

He discarded his ace of diamonds. We wouldn't call this a safety play, although it did give away a sure trick. East could afford it. His other six diamonds would be good, provided his partner could be persuaded to lead a diamond.

West was persuaded. He took his ace of clubs, looked over the trick carefully and remarked, "I hope you know what you are doing." He led his one and only diamond.

Chancellor's Visit Delayed
BONN, Germany (AP) — Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger's scheduled August visit to Washington has been postponed because of President Nixon's forthcoming trip to Asia and Romania.

A spokesman for the West German government said Sunday he did not know whether a new date had been agreed on. The visit was to have been made Aug. 4-5.

HOPE NEWSPAPER HISTORY: The 1929 consolidation joined the two principal newspaper lines dating back to within five years of Hope's incorporation in 1875.

1899 — Star of Hope founded as a weekly by Claude McCorkle; converted to an evening daily by his son, Ed, McCorkle, publishing until the 1929 consolidation.

The opposition line: 1880 — Hope News founded by Lowry Brothers.

1883 — Sold to Withers & Johnson, name changed to Hope Telegraph.

1883 — Later in same year resold to Claude McCorkle and renamed Hope Mercury.

1884 — Sold to James H. Betts, who named it Hope Gazette, under which name it was published continuously until 1922, published by Betts, J.L. Tullis, and Col. W.W. Folsom the last-named dying in 1916.

1916 — Purkins & Gates bought the weekly Gazette and made it a companion paper to their new daily, Arkansas Evening Herald—but both papers suspended in 1922.

1926 — Plant was revived by Curtis Cannon as the weekly Hempstead County Review.

1927 — Cannon sold plant to D.A. Gean, who established the morning Hope Daily Press.

1929 — C.E. Palmer and A.H. Washburn consolidated The Star and the Press as Hope Star, with Palmer as president and Washburn secretary-treasurer.

1957 — Following Mr. Palmer's death Mrs. Palmer became president.

1969 — With Mrs. Palmer's retirement from Star Publishing Co. Washburn became 76 per cent owner and president — balance 24 per cent being held by Texarkana Newspapers, Inc.

Excessive sweating can be controlled with a variety of drugs taken by mouth but, because of possible side effects, they must be taken under careful medical supervision.

Q—I've been having night sweats for over a year. My scalp gets as wet as if I'd ducked my head in a pan of water. What causes this and what can I do for it?

A—Night sweats may be caused by tuberculosis, a deficiency of vitamin C or D or a general rundown condition. If your doctor can find the cause, he should be able to help you.

Q—Why does excessive salt form in my eyebrows?

A—The salt is a residue of sweating and in this location it is usually a result of nervous tension.

Q—What are arteriosclerosis obliterans and arteriosclerotic heart disease with angina pectoris and osteoporosis, generalized?

A—Arteriosclerosis obliterans is a severe hardening of the arteries that completely blocks the flow of blood. This is seen most commonly in the legs and in the coronary vessels of the heart. In the latter it would cause a heart attack. Such an attack would be associated with a severe pain on the left side of the chest, the pain of angina pectoris—a term usually reserved for temporary spasms in a coronary artery rather than a complete obstruction.

Osteoporosis is a weakening of the bones due to failure to maintain the normal level of calcium phosphate. When the involvement is widespread throughout the body, it is said to be generalized.

Q—I have heard that eating charcoal-broiled steaks causes cancer. If this is true, wouldn't the activated charcoal you recommended for persons with sour stomach be even more harmful?

A—The furor over charcoal broiling was short-lived. No harm from this source was ever proved. Activated charcoal tablets have long been approved by the Food and Drug Administration for excessive belching or gas in the bowel.

South's no-trump opening was normal in spite of the lack of a diamond stopper. He had 16 points and no-trump distribution. North's raise to game was in the nature of a gamble. He hoped his club suit would provide his partner with enough tricks to make the no-trump game. He wanted to have no part of an attempt to take 11 tricks at five clubs.

West opened the queen of spades. South looked over dummy and saw that he was going to have to knock out the ace of clubs before he could run off anything like nine tricks. He also saw that a spade continuation was going to give him all the time he needed but, meanwhile, the diamond suit was wide open and nothing could be done about it.

He decided to win the first spade in dummy. West would know where the ace was but East could not be sure. At trick two he led dummy's queen of clubs. West let it hold on general principles. A second club was led from dummy and at this point East came up with the killing defensive play.

He discarded his ace of diamonds. We wouldn't call this a safety play, although it did give away a sure trick. East could afford it. His other six diamonds would be good, provided his partner could be persuaded to lead a diamond.

West was persuaded. He took his ace of clubs, looked over the trick carefully and remarked, "I hope you know what you are doing." He led his one and only diamond.

Fitzhugh Heads Panel to Look Into Pentagon

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Gilbert Fitzhugh says he doesn't know much about defense spending, cost overruns and all that. But based on what he's read, "somebody ought to look into it, and it looks like its going to be me."

This was the reaction of the insurance industry executive—who never served in the military—after being named to head a panel which will recommend changes in the complex Pentagon operation.

President Nixon, appointing the 1930 Princeton graduate upon recommendation of Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird, charged the panel with studying the Pentagon's organization, procurement practices and research and development programs.

Formation of the group—the remaining dozen members or so are still to be named—comes at a time of intense criticism about wasteful defense spending, sloppy military planning and civilian-military struggle over influence in the Pentagon.

Fitzhugh, a white-haired grandfatherly looking man, told Pentagon reporters he has opinions about such things as anti-ballistic missile deployment and Vietnam.

But he wouldn't say what his views are and "I am going to try very hard to keep them out of my study."

The purpose of the blue ribbon panel, as Nixon described it, is not to determine national policy but to make recommendations on how the defense establishment can operate more efficiently and effectively.

The year-long study will, as Laird put it, be the most comprehensive review of the Defense Department since the Hoover Commission studies of 1947 and 1953.

"I am confident," Laird said in presenting Fitzhugh to reporters, "that the panel's recommendations will enable the department to perform its national security mission better, and to save the taxpayer money by eliminating wasteful practices of the past."

NAACP Head Rejects Idea of Reparations

By DON MCKEE
Associated Press Writer

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — A official of the nation's largest civil rights organization has rejected a move by black militants to collect reparations from churches for wrongs done to negroes.

In our long crusade, we have subscribed to the reparations concept," Bishop Stephen Spottswood, board chairman of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said in the keynote address Monday night at the group's annual convention.

"It is asy and it is emotionally appealing, but it is not the fairest way for this white generation to redress the wrongs still visited upon this black generation and its children," said Bishop Spottswood, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church in Washington, D.C.

Bishop Spottswood described as "gullible" a task force of church leaders who recommended the National Council of Churches raise $500 million in response to reparations demands by black militant James Forman.

Native of State Gets New Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Air Force Lt. Gen. Seth J. McKee, a native of McGehee, Ark., has been named by President Nixon to be commander-in-chief of the North American Air Defense and Continental Air Defense Commands.

McKee, who will assume the position Aug. 1, was nominated for promotion to full general. The Senate must approve the nomination.

McKee, 52, will replace retiring Gen. Raymond J. Reeves. McKee currently is assistant vice chief of staff of the Air Force.

Parimutuel Betting Plan Before Group

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A proposal recognizing the legality of parimutuel betting on horses at Hot Springs and on dogs at Southland Park in West Memphis was introduced Monday in the state Constitutional convention.

Nine delegates joined together to sponsor the proposal, which would make all other forms of gaming unlawful unless authorized by the legislature.

Gaming legislation would automatically be referred to the voters after its passage by the General Assembly and would not take effect unless approved in the election.

John W. Elrod of Rison introduced a proposal to merge the offices of lieutenant governor and secretary of state.

The convention last week defeated a proposal by Elrod to eliminate the office of lieutenant governor.

The Executive Branch Committee introduced a proposal to require a candidate for governor and a candidate for lieutenant governor in the same political party to run on the same ticket.

The Finance and Taxation Committee approved a proposal drafted by the Municipal Government Committee to permit cities to levy any taxes their residents approve unless the legislature prohibited the tax.

Also approved was a proposal to permit a city's voters to enact a higher ad valorem tax than the present limit of five mills for general operations.

The Finance and Taxation and Municipal Government committees voted Monday to recommend that, if the voters approve, a municipality could levy a two-mill tax for maintaining a public library. The present limit is one mill.

Also recommended by the committees was retention of the one-mill limitation on pension funds for policemen and firemen.

College Heads Agree Unrest Has to End

NEW YORK (AP) — Eight college presidents who studied campus unrest concluded that colleges cannot continue "to take the battering inflicted during the past academic year."

In a two-day conference at the John La Farge Institute here, the eight administrators discussed campus disruptions in the past academic year. The meeting was sponsored by the Knights of Columbus, a Roman Catholic fraternal organization.

Two presidents—Dumont F. Kenny of York College and Joseph P. McMurray of Queens College, both branches of the City University of New York—recommended a visible police presence in the face of threatened disturbances. The two men presented the conference's findings at a news conference Monday.

"The heat and passion of the arena and the market place are very dangerous," Kenny said. "A campus is not as thick-skinned as a city hall or an army headquarters."

Among the guidelines of the administrators were no amnesty for student lawbreakers and no negotiations "when personnel are detained or buildings occupied."

Other participants were James A. Colston of Bronx Community College, Arthur O. Davidson of Wagner College and the Rev. Gregory Nugent of Manhattan College, all in New York City; Clifford Lord of Hofstra University in Hempstead, N.Y.; J. Osborn Fuller of Fairleigh Dickinson University in Rutherford, N.J.

Explanation of Surtax for Taxpayers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Surcharge: Under a law enacted last year, all individual taxpayers above the lowest brackets and all corporations are charged an extra 10 per cent of their income tax. The surtax officially expired at midnight, but a special act allows collection of withholding revenue under the old rate through July.

Proposal: The bill President Nixon wants and approved by the House extends the surtax at 10 per cent through Dec. 31, then at 5 per cent through June 30, 1970. The Treasury says this would yield $7.6 billion in the fiscal year that started today and result in a $6.3-billion budget surplus.

Backdrop: President Lyndon B. Johnson proposed the original surcharge when the country faced a $25-billion deficit. The Nixon administration says the continuation is urgently needed now. Opponents say the surcharge didn't check inflation, as demonstrated by constantly rising prices and interest rates. The administration says there are signs of a leveling off and this is no time to release the brakes.

Politics: Congress is still controlled by Democrats. Some of them say they see no reason to give a Republican administration a surplus denied Democrat Johnson. Congress has started work on tax reform, but proposals to date do virtually nothing for the middle-income taxpayer. Dropping the surtax would, Surtax skeptics demand quick revenue-raising reforms backed by the administration as a price for a short-term surtax extension.

Prospects: With attempts certain to be made at attaching tax reform measures, Senate leaders say it will take three months to finish work on the surtax. And even then passage prospects are uncertain. The leaders say they will probably seek a 60-day extension past the month continuation already approved.

California Starts Year Without Budget

By BILL BOYARSKY
Associated Press Writer
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — California, the nation's most populous state, entered a fiscal year today without a budget to finance state operations.

Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan blamed Democrats, led by Assemblyman Jess M. Unruh. He accused them of "unforgivable obstructionism . . . unprecedented in the history of California."

Reagan told state employees there was no guarantee they would be paid and asked them to stay on their jobs on a voluntary basis.

The 39 Democrats are a minority in the 80-member Assembly but a two-third majority, or 54 votes, is needed for budget approval.

The Democrats are demanding in return for their votes a $400 million increase in aid to California's local school districts, and a tax relief package that would reduce property taxes on homeowners and increase income and other taxes.

Reagan has proposed a $105 million boost in local school aid, which was $1.3 billion last year.

Never before has the state lacked legal authorization to pay its bills, and there was no agreement as to what would happen to the government.

"There is no authorization for anyone to go to work," said Assemblyman Victor Veysey, one of the house's fiscal leaders.

Sniper Fires on Plant at Hot Springs

HOT SPRINGS, ARK. (AP) — An official of General Cable Corp. said Monday a sniper fired on the Hot Springs plant while he and another official were there late Sunday.

Ronald O'Malley, personnel manager of the strike-bound firm, said the sniper fired about six shots while he and Robert H. Shipper were trying to divert water from a bullet-riddled 250,000-gallon water tank at the plant.

O'Malley and Shipper weren't hurt.

United Steel Workers Union members have been on strike at the plant for 20 weeks. Supervisory and administrative personnel are handling plant production.
